

Frontiers of European Integration: Behind Political Slogans

Seminar supporting the project «EU Eastern Neighbourhood: Economic Potential and Future Development», (ENEPO)

Implemented within Sixth Framework Program of the European Commission

Date: 26 January 2009

Place: Kyiv, Premier Palace, Sofievski Grand hall (Section A)

Working language: English-Ukrainian

Registration		10:00
Coffee		10:00 – 10:30
Opening statement: ENEPO project, its goals and results achieved	Dmytro Boyarchuk, Executive Director CASE Ukraine	10:30 - 10:45
Regional inequality and convergence in Europe (Results from the ENEPO project)	Arne Melchior, Senior Researcher, Norwegian Institute of International Affairs	10:45 – 11:30
Institutional harmonization and its costs and benefits in the context of EU cooperation with its neighbors	Dmytro Boyarchuk, Executive Director CASE Ukraine	11:30 – 11:45
Measuring the benefits of improved market access	Irina Orlova, expert, CASE Ukraine	11:45 – 12:00
Possible problems with institutional harmonization and suggested ways of overcoming them	Vladimir Dubrovskiy, Senior Economist, CASE Ukraine	12:00 – 12:15
Discussion	Moderator: Dmytro Boyarchuk	12:15 – 13:00
Closing statement	Dmytro Boyarchuk, Executive Director CASE Ukraine	13:00 – 13:15
Coffee and snacks		13:30 – 14:00

The materials express exclusively the views of the authors and cannot be identified with the official stance of European Commission.